

AEGIS

AEGIS SPRING CONFERENCE

Thursday 17th March 2016

Grand Connaught Rooms,
61-65 Great Queen Street,
London
WC2B 5DA

10am – 4pm

£125 for AEGIS Members

£150 for non-AEGIS Members

AEGIS is pleased to announce the following speakers:

Keynote Speaker: Neil Carmichael

Conservative MP and chairman of the Education Select Committee

The government's stance on international students and the importance of quality guardianship

Neil Carmichael was elected to Parliament in 2010, winning the Stroud seat. He is chairman of the Education Select Committee and established two All Parliamentary Party Groups: Governance and Leadership in Education, and Vascular Diseases.

www.neilcarmichael.co.uk

Kalsoom Bashir Co-Director of Inspire

Safeguarding children from extremism

Kalsoom Bashir was the lead Prevent Officer for Bristol City Council and also selected to serve on the National Muslim Women's Advisory group. Kalsoom worked with the South West counter terrorism investigation unit for three years as the regional Prevent trainer.

www.wewillinspire.com

Louise Tickle Freelance Journalist

Media crisis management: why prevention is better than cure and practical strategies for dealing with challenging issues

Louise Tickle is an award winning freelance journalist who specialises in education and social affairs. She writes for the Guardian, Observer, Times, Sunday Times and Newsweek magazine, and has extensive experience of training universities and non-governmental organisations in how to manage their relationships with the media. www.louisetickle.co.uk

Nicola Lutz Director of StudyTravel

Q&A session on working with agents and international student market trends

Nicola Lutz has worked at Hothouse Media since 1995. StudyTravel Magazine reaches agents in over 7000 agencies in 125 countries. Publishing the monthly StudyTravel Magazine for 25 years and holding 10 ST Alphe Conferences puts them in a unique position to gather data on agent/student outbound markets and the workings of the agent-provider relationship.

www.hothousemedia.com/stmnews

Val Barnes Head of Inspection and Accreditation, AEGIS

AEGIS Accreditation Process and Q&As

Val Barnes has over 30 years' experience of education in both the independent and maintained sectors as well as in business and marketing. She has also lived and worked abroad. She joined AEGIS in 2014 and was appointed Head of Inspection and Accreditation in May 2015.

Early booking is advisable. Contact Yasemin for further details:

yasemin@aegisuk.net +44 (0) 1453 821293

Not yet an AEGIS member school? You will receive free AEGIS membership for one year with your conference booking.

AEGIS, The Association for the Education and Guardianship of International Students, is the authoritative association for inspecting and accrediting Guardianship Organisations and promotes the highest possible standards of guardianship for international students studying in the UK.