

Spring Conference: Cultural Awareness and Communication
Thursday 30th April 2015

Felsted School, Felsted, Dunmow, Essex CM6 3LL

10.00 – 10.30 Registration and Coffee on arrival

10.30 – 10.45 Welcome

10.45 – 12.15 Ann Muston, Head of International Support, The Leys School, Cambridge
Bullying

Passionate about the education and welfare of international pupils and students, Ann Muston is an experienced conference speaker with a wealth of knowledge related to pastoral issues. Ann has worked in English language education for over 18 years, setting up and heading new departments.

12.30 – 13.15 Mrs Frances Walker, B.Ed., Housemistress and teacher of English at Sherborne International
Our Duty of Care: A Pastoral Partnership

With over 30 years' experience as a Housemistress, Mrs Frances Walker has spent the last 14 years at Sherborne International, responsible for girls' boarding and living in a house with 100% international students.

13.15 – 14.30 Lunch

14.30 – 15.45 Richard Levinge, Director of Ease Training and Linde Melhuish, Associate Director of Ease Training
Mind the Gap – Exploring Cultural Differences

Ease Training offer training events and bespoke consultancy to School Governors and Senior Leadership teams. Richard is also the Chair of the Development Committee and a Governor at a local boarding school with international boarders, and Chair of Finance at a special needs school. Linde is an Education and Leadership Consultant, specialising in the independent sector, and also an ISI Team Inspectorate. She is also Regional Co-ordinator for Quest Guardians, an AEGIS member. Linde has many years' successful teaching, management and leadership experience within boarding schools.

www.aegisuk.net